

“Who Do You Say I Am? (Part 1)” (Union with Christ I)
(Study 6 of “Getting Personal with God: Sonship A” Series)

The Scripture Passage (Paul’s Letter to the Colossians 3:1-17)

English Standard Version Translation (ESV)

Colossians, Chapter 3:1 If then you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. 2 Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth. 3 For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. 4 When Christ who is your life appears, then you also will appear with him in glory. 5 Put to death therefore what is earthly in you: sexual immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry. 6 On account of these the wrath of God is coming. 7 In these you too once walked, when you were living in them. 8 But now you must put them all away: anger, wrath, malice, slander, and obscene talk from your mouth. 9 Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have put off the old self with its practices 10 and have put on the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge after the image of its creator. 11 Here there is not Greek and Jew, circumcised and uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave, free; but Christ is all, and in all. 12 Put on then, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, compassionate hearts, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience, 13 bearing with one another and, if one has a complaint against another, forgiving each other; as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. 14 And above all these put on love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony. 15 And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in one body. And be thankful. 16 Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, teaching and admonishing one another in all wisdom, singing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, with thankfulness in your hearts to God. 17 And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

New Living Translation (NLT)

Colossians, Chapter 3:1 “Since you have been raised to new life with Christ, set your sights on the realities of heaven, where Christ sits in the place of honor at God’s right hand. 2 Think about the things of heaven, not the things of earth. 3 For you died to this life, and your real life is hidden with Christ in God. 4 And when Christ, who is your life, is revealed to the whole world, you will share in all his glory. 5 So put to death the sinful, earthly things lurking within you. Have nothing to do with sexual immorality, impurity, lust, and evil desires. Don’t be greedy, for a greedy person is an idolater, worshiping the things of this world. 6 Because of these sins, the anger of God is coming. 7 You used to do these things when your life was still part of this world. 8 But now is the time to get rid of anger, rage, malicious behavior, slander, and dirty language. 9 Don’t lie to each other, for you have stripped off your old sinful nature and all its wicked deeds. 10 Put on your new nature, and be renewed as you learn to know your Creator and become like him. 11 In this new life, it doesn’t matter if you are a Jew or a Gentile, circumcised or uncircumcised, barbaric, uncivilized, slave, or free. Christ is all that matters, and he lives in all of us. 12 Since God chose you to be the holy people he loves, you must clothe yourselves with tenderhearted mercy, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience. 13 Make allowance for each other’s faults, and forgive anyone who offends you. Remember, the Lord forgave you, so you must forgive others. 14 Above all, clothe yourselves with love, which binds us all together in perfect harmony. 15 And let the peace that comes from Christ rule in your hearts. For as members of one body you are called to live in peace. And always be thankful. 16 Let the message about Christ, in all its richness, fill your lives. Teach and counsel each other with all the wisdom he gives. Sing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs to God with thankful hearts. 17 And whatever you do or say, do it as a representative of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks through him to God the Father.

Chart: Have You Forgotten Who You Really Are?

As we believe in and follow Jesus, we are God's sons and daughters who are dearly loved, rejoiced over, and delighted in. That is who we really are- defined by who we are in Christ, not by our sin or failures, nor by our goodness or accomplishments. You may not feel holy and pleasing, but that feeling does not have the final word over your life. You are (in fact) holy and pleasing, because you are in Christ. We are truly free in Christ. However, we often don't live freely- the way Jesus has called us to live.

Look at the following chart- on the next page- to identify:

(1) How we often act; (2) What causes us to act this way (what we falsely think of ourselves and what we've forgotten about ourselves); and (3) How to act differently by remembering the truth (what God says about us).

Group Prayer

Ideas for Communal and Personal Prayer (Choose 1-2 topics to share about and pray for):

1. What's one burden you need prayer for- for relief or healing?
2. What's one sin you'd like to (re-)confess to God?
3. What's one deed in your life or community you'd like to praise God for?
4. What's one desire stirred by this time together with God that you can pray for?

You're acting like...	You're in bondage to...	You've forgotten that you're...	What God says about you:
a slave?	"the rules" - yours for you, others' for you	free (to stop and rest as well as to work and love, in Christ)	"you are no longer a slave" (Galatians 4:4-9)
an orphan?	fear - of rejection, failure, or punishment	adopted (God is your caring, safe Daddy, in Christ)	"Beloved, we are God's children now " (1 John 3:1-3)
a hypocrite?	appearance, pretense, or criticism	justified (you're "all good" and "alright" with the universe and with God, in Christ)	"not having a righteousness of my own...but [a righteousness] which comes from God" (Philippians 3:8-11)
a prisoner?	a specific, habitual addiction - a relationship, behavior, thought, or feeling	being sanctified (God is changing you from the inside-out, for the better- holy and holier, in Christ)	"you have been set free from sin" (Romans 6:12-22)
a loner?	self-interest, individualism (consumed with hobbies, work, or a virtual world)	united with others (you are part of something bigger than yourself, a world-changing team, in Christ)	"we, though many, are one body in Christ, and individually members of one another " (Romans 12:4-10)
a pessimist/cynic?	death (everything unravels, is hollow, or just "phony")	resurrected (you are dead to death and alive to lasting, deep-seated purpose and meaning, in Christ)	"For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we shall certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his" (Romans 6:3-11)
a hoarder?	material possessions, the good life ("not enough," "keeping up," "making it")	an heir (the entire Kingdom of God, all of creation is always yours- to enjoy, steward, in Christ)	"In him we have obtained an inheritance"(Ephesians 1:11-14)
a tyrant?	manipulation, anger, power, or control	under authority (we don't determine success; we get to be faithful to the circumstances & tasks we're given by & in Christ)	" I too am a man set under authority , with soldiers under me'... When Jesus heard these things, he marveled at him ...'such faith' " (Luke 7:1-10)
